2. SPECIAL PRESENTATION:

Mayor Tom Dolan and Council Chairman Steve Fairbanks presented a resolution of commendation to retiring Public Utilities Inspector Craig Peterson. Craig has served the City for over 27 years and was acknowledged as being meticulous, knowledgeable, a hard worker, adept, and having a great sense of humor and a winning smile as a few of his many attributes. Craig's fellow employees will miss him.

3. CITIZEN(S) COMMENTS:

- a. Rick Granstill, 8587 South 1000 East, complained that his street still does not have City street lights. He was quite upset that he has been paying for street lights that he does not yet have. Mr. Granstill also complained that he did not feel he was treated politely by crews doing an asphalt overlay on the road in front of his house. He alleged that one of the construction workers wiped his asphalt shovel on one of the landscape rocks in front of his house.

Mr. Granstill asked the City to consider the creation of a "Bully Program" to protect school children from being bullied at school. He stated that he would be glad to volunteer his services to work on a "hotline" so students could report a bully.

Councilman Scott Cowdell reported that as an employee of the Jordan School District, he is aware the District runs such a program. He suggested that Mr. Granstill call George Welch, the head of Human Resources, who would be able to help Mr. Granstill with this problem. Mr. Cowdell noted that his wife is a school aide in a Sandy School. All teachers and aides are trained to identify school bullies and to report them.

Mr. Granstill reported that he was advised by the Jordan School District to contact the City Council.

Scott Cowdell responded that the Jordan School District is its own entity and would be responsible to assist in such cases. If an assault occurs on school property, he felt a parent could press charges with the Sandy Police Department.

Mr. Granstill reported that he was told by the Police Department that the child has to be over 10 years of age.

Mr. Granstill was then asked to meet with the Public Works Director and the Public Utilities Director, in the hallway, as they would be able to respond to his specific questions on lighting and street signage.
